
Information about personal data processing

To anyone wishing to become a client at Mirlex Law Firm

Processing of personal data - Information under the General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679 / EC)

Mirlex Law Firm is responsible for information that is personally identifiable regarding contact persons we receive in connection with assignments or otherwise processed when the assignment is prepared or administered. You are not required to provide personal information to us but without this we cannot undertake an assignment because we cannot carry out the necessary financial and money laundering controls.

We will process your information to carry out mandatory financially and (if applicable) money laundering checks, perform and manage the mission, to safeguard your interests and for accounting and billing purposes. The data can also be used for business and method development, market analysis, statistics and risk management. The data processed for the purpose of developing and analyzing the business is treated on the basis of our legitimate interest in developing the business and communicating with our contacts.

Personal data may be transferred between the law firm's various group or sister companies for the purpose of performing financial and money laundering control, for information and knowledge exchange and resource allocation. We will not disclose personal information to third parties other than in cases where (i) it is specifically agreed between the law firm and you, (ii) when it is necessary within the framework of a particular assignment to exercise your rights, (iii) if it is necessary for us to comply with statutory duty or to comply with authority decisions or court decisions; or (iv) in the event that we hire third-party service providers who perform assignments on our behalf. The information may be disclosed to courts, authorities, counterparties and counterparty agents if necessary to safeguard your rights.

Personal data is stored, in accordance with the obligation of Mirlex Law Firm under the Guidelines for Legal Ethics, for a period of ten years from the date of completion of the case or the length of time invoked by the nature of the matter.
